

NOVEL CORONAVIRUS (COVID-19) GLOBAL OUTBREAK: RALLYING THE PHILADELPHIA COMMUNITY TO STOP TRANSMISSION AND PROTECT THE PUBLIC

Objectives:

- ◆ Review global epidemiology of COVID-19, containment efforts and medical countermeasures
- ◆ Promote preparedness among the clinical community, enabling us to rapidly identify cases and prevent widespread community transmission in Philadelphia
- ◆ Describe local public health disease control actions to increase awareness of the Philadelphia Department of Public Health's (PDPH) role as the lead response agency in Philadelphia

9:00 Welcome & Global Epidemiology Overview

THOMAS FARLEY, MD, MPH, Health Commissioner, Philadelphia Department of Public Health

9:15 Viral Characteristics of COVID-19 & Current Local Response Strategies

KRISTEN FEEMSTER, MD, MPH, Medical Director, Acute Communicable Diseases Program, Division of Disease Control, PDPH

9:45 Preparing for Widespread Transmission

STEVE ALLES, MD, MS, Director, Division of Disease Control, PDPH

10:00 Healthcare Provider and Vulnerable Population Preparedness

JESSICA CAUM, MPH, Manager, Bioterrorism and Public Health Preparedness Program, Division of Disease Control, PDPH

10:15 Vaccine Development

PABLO TEBAS, MD, Director & Principal Investigator, AIDS Clinical Trial Unit Research Site, University of Pennsylvania

10:30 Vaccine Distribution

AMBER TIRMAL, MPH, Manager, Immunizations Program, Division of Disease Control, PDPH

10:40 Q&A Panel

Moderated by CAROLINE JOHNSON, MD, Deputy Health Commissioner, Philadelphia Department of Public Health

Visit hip.phila.gov to stay informed & sign up for health alerts

DOUBLETREE BY HILTON HOTEL | MARCH 11, 2020 | 9:00-11:00
SYMPHONY BALLROOM | 237 S. BROAD STREET
GARAGE PARKING IS AVAILABLE FOR $12 (CASH ONLY)

